NOTICE

Culpeper County does not discriminate - against religions or on the basis of sex, age, race, national origin, or a disability - in its planning and land use processes. If you believe that you have been discriminated against or that the Religious Land Use & Institutionalized Persons Act (“RLUIPA”) has been violated, please ask for a complaint form.

Under the laws of the United States and the Commonwealth of Virginia, no government may discriminate against religions or on the basis of sex, age, race, national origin, or a disability - in its planning and land use processes.

Under RLUIPA, no government may apply its zoning or land use laws, or its policies and procedures in a manner that unjustifiably imposes a substantial burden on the religious exercise of a person, including a religious assembly or institution.

RLUIPA also provides that no government may apply its zoning or land use laws in a manner that treats a religious assembly or institution on less than equal terms that a non-religious institution or assembly.

Finally, RLUIPA provides that no government may impose or implement a land use regulation in a manner that discriminates against a religious assembly or institution.

Culpeper County does not discriminate against religions in its planning and land use processes. If you believe that you have been discriminated against or that the Religious Land Use & Institutionalized Persons Act (“RLUIPA”) has been violated, please ask for a complaint form.
